NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. 1863.

The New-York Tribune, first issued in 1841, in its twenty-second years, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th of December, 1862, is as follows:

Daily	50,125
Semi-Weekly	17,250
Weekly	148,000
Aggregate	215,375

Preeminently a journal of News and of Literature, The Tribune has political convictions which are well charge[d] by the single word REPUBLICAN. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"—Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its antagonism to the despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the evils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the World's Republic—Republican in its hope and trust, its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be one and inseparable" henceforth and forever.

The Tribune devotes attention in other times, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Inventions, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle, which we trust to result in the final and conclusive triumph of the national arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that not elsewhere can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular columns of our columns. And we cordially solicit the co-operation of friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation.

TERMS.

The enormous increase in the price of printing paper and other materials used in printing newspapers, compels us to increase the price of The Tribune. Our new terms are:

BEAVER ARGUS.

Vol. 39--No. 30. Beaver, Wednesday, August 5, 1863. Established 1818

[Written for the Argus.]

DOES THE BIBLE SANCTION SUCH A PRINCIPLE?

VI.

The next which the Bishop offers is "Lev. 25, 44—40. Both thy bondmen and bondmaids which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you of them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids. Moreover of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land, and they shall be your possessor. And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession, and they shall be your bondmen forever."

During the existence of the Patriarchal Government, the Jews were denied (in a great measure) intercourse with surrounding tribes and nations. God is now changing their government, and among the statutes is the text just quoted. It is a permissive statute, granting the privilege of hiring servants of heathen nations That is all.

The fact that servants procured from the heathen were called in Scripture "bondmen," while those from the Israelites are called "servants" is deemed conclusive proof by many that the former were slaves. It is enough to say in reply, that the caprices of King James translators were not divinely inspired The word which they render bondmen, is this passage, is the same word which they uniformly render servants elsewhere.

To show the absurdity of inferring that the Gentile servants were slaves, let us look at the Hebrew word "ebed," the plural of which is here translated "bondmen." Thy bondmen shall be of the heathen—of them shall ye bring "boudmen." In Isaiah 42, 1, the same word is applied to Christ. "Behold my servant (bondman, slave) whom I have chosen, mine elect in whom my soul delighteth. So Isaiah 52, 13.—Behold my servant (Christ) shall deal prudently. In I. Kings 12; 6, 7, it is applied to King Rehoboamm. But waving details, and text references, with which pages might be filled, suffice it to say, that the word is applied to all persons who do work for others. It is applied to magistrates, to governmental officers, to tributaries, to all the subjects of governments, to younger sons, defining their relation to the first born, who is called Lord and ruler—to Prophets, to Kings, to the Messiah, and in respectful address not less than fifty times in the Old Testament. If as the advocates of slavery insist, the Israelites not only held slaves, but multitudes of them, it is no slight wonder that their language had no word that meant slave. If Abraham had thousands and if they abounded everywhere throughout the Mosaic system in such numbers that the eye saw them wherever it fell, why had they no such word as slave or slavery. That language must be piteously poverty-stricken which has no signs to represent those objects and conditions most common and familiar. To represent by the same word, and without figure, property, and the owner of that property, is a solecism in language; yet such cases abounded in the Bible, if "ebed" means slave.—Ziba was an "ebed," yet he owned twenty ebeds. In English, besides the word servant, we have the word slave. Why, because we have the thing and need the sign for it. If we had a sheath for the tongue, as a scabbard for the sword, we should have a name for it, but our dictionaries give us none Why, because we have no such thing? But if as the objector insists there were not only servants, but besides these, a multitude of slaves held by the Israelites, a word meaning slave, would have been almost indispensable for purposes of every day convenience, and to prevent endless confusion. Further, the laws of the Mosaic system were so many sentinels keeping watch on every side to warn of all foreign practices. The border ground of Canaan was quarantine ground enforcing the strictest non-intercourse between the without and the within, not of persons, but of wages. The fact that the Hebrew language had no word corresponding to slave, or to slavery, though not a conclusive, argument, is no slight corroboration.

"They shall be your bondmen forever" This is quoted to prove that the bondage of servants was perpetual.—That they were to serve during their own life time, and their posterity from generation to generation. No such idea is contained in the passages.—The word forever, instead defining the length of individual service, proclaims the permanence of the regulation laid down in the two verses preceding, namely, that their permanent domestics should be of the strangers, and not of the Israelites, and it specifies the duration of that general provision for domestic labor. As if God had said, you shall always get your permanent laborers from the natives round about you—your servants shall always be of that class of persons.—As it stands in the original it is perfectly plain. "Forever of them shall ye serve yourselves." This is the literal rendering of the Hebrew words, which, in our translation, are rendered. They shall be your bondmen forever."

This construction is entirely in keeping with the whole of the passages. Both thy bondmen and bondmaids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen (the nations) that are round about you. Of them shall you buy bondmen and bondmaids.—Moreover of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall you buy, &c. The design of this passage is manifest from its very structure. It was to point out the class of persons from which they were to get their supply of servants, and the way in which they were to get them That "forever" refers to the relation of a permanent community, rather than the services of individuals, which are always of uncertain tenure, and but for a brief period, at longest, is a fair from the form of expression, "they shall be in your possession; ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you to inherit them for a possession, to say nothing of the uncertainty of these individuals surviving those after whom they are to live, the language used applies more naturally to a body of people, than to individuals, servants, and no other construction would ever have been put upon it, but for the influence of existing usages upon Scripture interpretation. But suppose it is otherwise still perpetual service could not be argued from the term forever. The ninth and tenth verses of the same chapter limit it absolutely by the jubilee.

Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land."—And ye shall hallow the fifteen and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof." It may be objected that "inhabitants" here means only the Israelitish inhabitants, the command is "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto "all the inhabitants thereof. The balance of the comment on this text next week.

Our Black Army.

We are to have a black army, that seems certain, perhaps a very large one, for the material is abundant in the South, and the negroes will come if they are called, or even permitted to come. It is a serious matter this, of enlisting a large black army in a war like the present. It is a very different thing from having a small black army either in 1776 or 1814, because the wars of those years differed essentially in their character, causes and probable results from this war. They were not connected with slavery.—Slavery was the cause of the contest in which we are now engaged, and the destruction of slavery is likely to be its consequence, whatever other effect it may produce. The relation, therefore, of a black army to the Government and the nation is very different now from what it was on any previous occasion.

It is worth while to inquire what this army will fight for, and what obligations to it the Government will assume by accepting its services.

Will it fight for "the Union as it was?" The price paid for that Union was slavery and the slave trade. Will it fight for "the Constitution as it is?" By that Constitution the negro race is doomed to perpetual bondage, and worse than bondage; for the term "persons" used in it has been construed to mean "property," and the relation of master and slave declared by the highest judicial authority of the nation to be, not the relation of a man to a man, but of an owner to a thing. It would be a mockery, therefore, more audacious than that of General Jackson's address to the men of color in Louisiana, were we to ask the negroes to fight for the Union and the Constitution, to help us to restore to its former place and power the great slave empire of the western world.

What inducement, then, can we offer them honorably, or rather, why are they offering themselves to this war? Why are the free negroes of the North quietly drilling and modestly asking to serve us under white officers? Why do the negroes of the South come in crowds to our armies wherever they move? Is it not for the sake of liberty? Are they not prompted by the hope that, somehow or other, this war is to make them freemen instead of merchandise, endowed with some rights, however limited, which they will wield and wield until the cause of it be removed.

The proclamation of September, announcing freedom to the slaves in the rebellious States, was a great stride forward on the road we are traveling, but there were others yet to be taken. It left slavery untouched in loyal States We are just now taking another step forward. We are raising a black army. We are thus incurring a solemn obligation to abolish slavery wherever our flag flies or we can hoist it When we do this we shall have taken the last step in our difficult path, and shall have reached the goal, the natural, inevitable, fitting, and triumphant end of the war—emancipation—the one essential condition to peace and Union.

Thus we see how the moral law works irresistibly to accomplish its purposes by linked sequence of cause and effect, bringing out good from evil and establishing rights by the instrumentality of wrongs. Crime, whether of an individual or a nation, sometimes goes for a long time unpunished, but retribution is sure to overtake it at last. The avenging Nemesis plies her task in secret, but in the end does even poetic justice, with surprisingly minute details.—Seventy-five years have passed since the South, led by South Carolina, refused the Constitution unless it contained slavery and the slave trade, South Carolina has been ever since the focal point of slavery propagandism. From the scheming brain of her chief statesman issued the fatal doctrines that induced the South by force and fraud to attempt to impose slavery upon the people of Kansas. The outrage was the immediate cause of the present war. And what do we now behold? The South devasted by our armies and exhausted by its own, and South Carolina invaded by negro regiments commanded by an officer from Kansas—Phila. North American and U. S. Gazette.

Popular Lies.—Lies of action are blood relations to lies of speech, and moral lies constitute a small share of the falsehoods in the world. There are lies of custom and lies of fashion; lies of padding and lies of whalebone; lies of the first water in diamonds of paste, and unblushing blushes of lies to which a shower would give quite a different complexion; the politician's lies, who, like a circus rider, strides two horses at once; the coquette's lies, like a professor of legerdemain, keeps six plates dancing at a time; lies sandwiched between bargains; lies in livery behind republican coaches, in all the pomp of gold band and buttons; lies of red tape and sealing-wax; lies from the cannon's mouth; lies in the name of glorious principles that might make dead heroes clatter in their graves; Malakoffs of lies, standing upon sacred dust, and lifting their audacious pinnacles in the sight of eternal Heaven!

What Dreams Mean.—To dream of a millstone round your neck, is a sign of what you may expect if you get an extravagant wife. To see apples in a dream betokens a wedding, because where you find apples you may reasonably expect to find pairs. To dream that you are lame, is a token that you will get into a hobble.—When a young lady dreams of a coffin, it betokens that she should instantly discontinue lacing her stays tightly, and always go warmly and thickly clad in wet weather. If you dream of a clock, it is a token that you will gain credit—that is, tick. To dream of fire, is a sign that if you are wise you will see that the lights in your home are out before you go to bed.—To dream that your nose is red at the tip, is an intimation that you had better leave off brandy and water. To dream of walking barefooted denotes a journey that you will make bootless.

Live's Happiest Period.—Kingsley gives his evidence on this disputed point. He thus declares: There is no pleasure that I have experienced like a child's midsummer holiday—the time, I mean, when two or three of us used to go away upon the brook, and take our dinners with us, and come home at night, tired, dirty, happy, scratched beyond recognition, with a great nosegay, three little trout, and one shoe, the other having been used for a boat, till it had gone down with all hands out of soundings. Depend upon it, a man never experiences such pleasure or grief after fourteen as he does before, unless, in some cases, in his first lovemaking, when the sensation is new to him.

A Siege in Shipping Street.

A deputy constable, this morning, undertook to serve a warrant upon a German tailor, living in Shippen street above Ninth. He found the tailor at home. The tailor is a man of heavy tonnage, weighing something over 250 pounds. Constable rang the doorbell. Tailor's wife responded. Mr. Schmick was at home, and constable walked in. Constable found Mr. Schmick in a back room. He read the warrant to Mr. Schmick.

"Dat ish all right," said Mr. Schmick. "I goes mit you. Shust you waits till I goes into der yard about one minutes."

Constable said 'certainly,' and took up a position at the back window to watch Mr. Schmick's movements.

Mr. Schmick went into the back yard. He moved till he reached a small patch of grass in the centre.—He then laid down flat upon his back dead weight.

"Misther constable then called out. The constable went out into the yard.

"What's the matter?" he asked.

"I ish ready to go mit you."

"Well, get up then."

"You comes und takes me."

"How in the thunder can I take you, if you don't get up?"

"Well, dat is von none my pusiness I makes no resistance. Der warrant says you takes der body—now den you takes it."

The constable undertook to lift Mr. Schmick. He might as well have attempted to scull himself up Niagara in a washtub. He tugged until he was fairly blown.

"You won't get up, will you?"

"No, sir, You do what der warrant tells you—take der body."

The constable could not, and went out for reinforcements. He returned with another man. Mr. Schmick, in the meantime, had two female witnesses on the spot to testify in the case of any foul proceedings. The constable found that to carry out Mr Schmick, about six able bodied men would be necesary. He couldn't proceed against the tailor for resisting the law. He was compelled to change base. He did this by posting a deputy at Mr. Schmick's front door, to catch him on the sidewalk, Mr. Schmick is provisioned for four weeks. He has two barrels of sour krout, a keg of tripe, and two bushels of Bolognies in his back cellar. How matters will terminate remains to be seen.

A Wife's Power.—The power of a wife for good or evil is irresistible.—Home must be the seat of happiness, or it must be forever unknown. A good wife is to a man wisdom, courage, strength and endurance. A bad one is confusion, weakness, discomfiture and despair. No condition is hopeless where the wife possesses firmness, decision and economy. There is no outward prosperity which can counteract indolence, extravagance and folly at home. No spirit can long endure bad domestic influence. Man is strong, but his heart is not adamant. He delights in enterprise and action; but to sustain him he needs a tranquil mind and a whole heart. He needs his moral force in the conflicts of the world. To recover his equanimity and composure, home must be to him a place of repose, of peace, of cheerfulness, of comfort, and his soul renews its strength again, and goes forth with fresh vigor to encounter the labor and troubles of life. But if at home he finds no rest, and is there met with bad temper, sullenness or gloom, or is assailed by discontent or complaint, hope vanishes, and he sinks into despair.

☞ A celebrated divine in the west of Scotland, tells the following story:

While one day taking his usual walk, he happened to come across a little boy busily engaged in forming a miniature building of clay. The doctor, always fond of conversation with children, at once began his interrogatories as follows:

"Well, my little man, what's this you're doing?" "Makin' a hoose, sir."

"What kind o' a hoose, sir?"

"What kind o' a hoose?" "A kirk, sir." "Where's the door?" "There it is," replied the boy, pointing with his finger. "Where's the pulpit?" "There it is," said the boy. The doctor, now thinking he would fix the sharp-eyed boy again asked, "Aye, but where is the minister?" The youngster, with a knowing look to his querist, and with a scratch of the head, again replied, "Oh, I had'na eneuch o'dirt to make him."

A Gentle Hint.—A boy in Ohio was hired to tend a store. One day he came home and said:

"Well, father, I have left Brown's for good."

"What's the matter Edmund?" said the father.

"Nothing particular," replied Edmund: "but Mr. Brown threw out some hints and talked so insultingly, that I couldn't stand it.

"What did he say, my son?"

"Why he allowed that I robbed the money drawer and he insinuated as much as if I was a liar and a thief—and he hinted that if I did not evacuate his premises at once, he would kick me out; and so I thought I might as well come home!"

☞ A philosopher asserts that the reason why ladies teeth decay sooner than gentlemen's is because of the friction of the tongue and the sweetness of the lips.

Pointed Preaing.—Father Moody was an eccentric man. He had in his congregation a Col. Ingrahams, a wealthy farmer, who had kept back his large stock of corn from market in hopes of raising the price. The pastor hear of it, and resolved to make a public attack upon the transgressor. One Sabbath he read for his text, "He that withholdeth the corn, the people shall curse him; but blessings shall be upon the head of him that selleth it," Prov. xi. 25.—Col. Ingraham could not but know to whom reference was made but he held up his head, and, faced his pastor with a look of stolid unconsciousness. Father Moody went on with very strong remarks, became still warmer, and touched the Colonel still more closely, who, however, still held up his head, apparently determined not to feel. At last the preacher lost all patience and cried out, "Colonel Ingraham, you know that I mean you: why don't you hang down your head?"

Prospect of War with Great Britain.

It has been stated within a few days by the New York Herald that notice has been given to the British Government by the authorities at Washington that unless the building and fitting out of vessels of war in English ports for the rebels to prey upon our commerce, we will enter the ports of Great Britain to capture such vessels.

The loyal people of the United States rejoice that our Government has at length resolved to pursue such a course, and if England chooses to consider it a declaration of war, let them make the best of it.

We have for the last year frequently called the attention of our readers, to the hostile conduct of our pretended friends across the water, and have shown, we believe, most clearly and certainly that all her pretentions of friendship are insincere and hypocritical This fact is now becoming daily more apparent.

Upon the slightest, real or imaginary infraction of the laws of nations as to the rights of neutral powers, on our part, loud complaints are made by the British press and people, and our Government is immediately called upon to make proper amends, but notwithstanding their zealous guarding of their rights and of all neutral powers, they show by every act of stern hostility to our Republic.

But for their speeches, resolutions, and the vile and slanderous publications of their newspapers we care but little. It is their unmistakable acts of hostility that we find grounds of complaint.

From the commencement of our war against the rebellion of the slaveholding States, against the best human government that ever existed on the earth, until the present, the people of Great Britain with the connivance and tacit consent of their Government have been busily engaged in preparing for and furnishing to the rebels the means necessary to carry on their unholy war. Who that reads and understands the history of great events transpiring, but know that the rebel States could not have carried on the war for a single year only for the encouragement given and material aid furnished by the British Government and people.

Vessels of war of the best and most costly description have been built openly and publicly, in full view of those in authority in England, for the rebels, have been equipped and manned by them, and have boldly gone forth upon the high seas to prey upon the commerce of a nation struggling for its very existence against the most stupendous and wicked rebellion ever raised against a good and beneficent Government, and this too whilst making the strongest professions of amity and friendship and hollow-hearted sympathy.

Even now that neutral and friendly nation is permitting British subjects, and at least one of them, a member of Parliament—that infernal Laird, to build for the rebel government a large iron-clad fleet with which to sweep our commerce from the seas, and to break the blockade of the ports of the States in rebellion, and to open the way for the British blockade runners to carry in their goods and munitions of war, for the support of human slavery, and the destruction of free government. Every intelligent man knows that Great Britain not only permits the building of ships of war for the rebels, but as our evidence, which appears to us almost conclusive, that it is done with their consent and approbation.—Those very vessels whilst engaged in their hellish purposes are openly received into the ports of the British dominions. Their flag is saluted by British provincial Governors, and ample supplies and means of repairing are furnished to them by British officials. Such has recently been the case with the English-Rebel war vessel, the "Florida," in Bermuda. Yet the government of England, so jealous of their honor and their rights, will not permit an American national vessel to enter their ports to take care of these pirates, nor will they permit them to receive supplies of any kind, and when they have in some instances entered these neutral British ports, have been ordered to leave.

Such conduct on the part of an enlightened and civilized people is disgraceful, mean and most contemptible, and must, sooner or later, bring down upon them the wrath of a just God and the curses of the nations of the earth A dreadful day of retribution awaits them. We owe them a long account, which as soon as our own domestic troubles are past, will be fully settled. Great Britain will be called to an account for the many and grievous wrongs and injuries done to us and our people, and will not be satisfied until she is taught a lesson which will show to the rotten and corrupt nations of Europe, that they cannot trample upon the rights of others with impunity.

Every lover of his country now rejoices that there is a prospect of humbling that haughty island power.—More anon.

The Democratic Platform.

When the impartial historian shall come to record the victories, defeats and embarrassments of our Government in its sacred effort to preserve our free institutions, the most appalling chapter in his chequered pages will be that devoted to the covert treason, the cowardly misrepresentation, the base appeals to partizan prejudices, and the thin guise of hypocrisy that presents cold professions of loyalty to a loyal people, while beneath rankles the deadliest hatred to the preservation of our nationality, save upon the altar of dishonor.

The Democratic State Convention held its sessions at Harrisburg, while armed traitors reveled in the Cumberland Valley, plundering our people, holding possession and exhausting the wealth of our towns and districts; insolently defying alike National and State authorities, and inflicting upon the fair fame of our Commonwealth the dishonor of rebel occupation of our soil. Some of the delegates in attendance were fugitives from their homes, and their families and property at the mercy of the minions of murderous treason. The people of the State were flying to arms in obedience to the call of the proper authorities and the measured tread of recruits was unceasing around the halls wherein were congregated the magnates of Democracy struggling to maintain the power and spoils of office.

The main duty of that Convention was to nominate a candidate for Governor, who, if chosen, would be charged with the maintenance of peace, order and security of the citizens and the honor of the State, and to declare the principles and policy upon which the Government shall be preserved and administered. How that duty was discharged, let the record answer. A man was presented for Governor, who has yet to utter the first earnest word of encouragement to the Government in preserving the life of the Republic against unholy treason; and whose every declarations upon the subject deny the power of the Nation to meet armed traitors with arms, and thus assert its inherent right to live. A platform was presented by Hon. F. W. Hughes, who signalized his devotion to the Government, when the war commenced, by tendering Pennsylvania as a free offering to those who have by wanton, wicked war, made millions mourn. Avowedly a friend of the deadly foes of the Republic, he could do no less, in a loyal State, than guise treason in every resolution, and attempt to poison the whole fountain of honest devotion to the cause of a common country.

That he succeeded well, is a painful, palpable truth. Of the eleven resolusions adopted, not one—not so much as a single sentence or line, breathes the spirit of an earnest, honest friend of the preservation of our Nationality. In reckless misrepresentation; in the recital of imaginary errors of the administration; in the denunciation of every measure adopted to give success to our arms in the field and to our honored flag; in defending the cause of open, insolent traitors upon whom the hand of the government has but too leniently fallen—in all this they are matchless in vigor and elaborate in terms. But they are wanting—sadly, wholly wanting in every expression of devotion to our country's cause; in every impulse of patriotism that looks to the subordination of all things to the preservation of our government; in every expression that would cheer a soldier's heart, or solace the thousands of bereaved mothers whose loved ones died that Freedom might live; in the reprobation of the relentless murderers of our gallant sons in the cause of mad ambition and deadly treachery—in all these they are silent as the grave!

The people of Pennsylvania are loyal. They may be defrauded into the embrace of treason, but they cannot be marshaled under a traitor's flag or on a traitor's platform, if not deceived by subtle, insidious foes.—We ask every man, of whatever political attachment, to peruse carefully and ponder well the platform from which Judge Woodward hopes to climb into the Executive chair. Had Seymour's speeches and platform last fall been half so frank in espousing the cause of our country's foes, he would not have been clothed with the power of the Empire State to prostrate it at the feet of a murderous, plundering mob; and if Woodford can be successful, the bitter foretaste of Democratic rule given to New York will be the ruling power of the land. Anarchy will hold undisputed sway in the great States of the North, and treason will compass the entire government in its triumphant embrace.—Loyal men of Pennsylvania!—think well of the entertainment to which you are invited!—Chambersburg Repository.

HARRISBURG, July 30—Considerable excitement has been created here by the discovery of enormous frauds upon the Government during the recent army movements in this region consequent upon the rebel raid. The amounts are stated at millions of dollars. A number of prominent State politicians have been placed under arrest, and the subject will receive the most searching investigation by the War Department. The most corrupt practices have prevailed in horse contracts and in clothing and subsistence supplies. They throw the "shoddy" operators at Harrisburg in the summer of 1861 entirely into the shade. Many of the same parties are implicated, and the gangs who have infested the State capital in the winter have reaped a rich summer harvest.

It is a sad commentary that while thousands of brave men rushed to arms to defend the State from invasion, and while the Governor was tickling them with honest words, his minions and followers were permitted, like harpies, to deprive them of food and to compel them to make long and weary marches, without even the poor luxury of crackers and pork. It is a matter of record that, while these contractors were receiving enormous sums, the gallant Philadelphia soldiers were placed on an allowance of a cracker a day for several days together, thanks to the neglect and corruption of the Executive Department of the State of Pennsylvania.

The above appears in the Pittsburgh Gazette, of the 1st, credited to the Philadelphia Inquirer. The facts are that not a horse, not an article of clothing, nor an ounce of subsistence was furnished by the State to the militia recently called into service. All was provided by the Federal Government, from their own stores, and the distribution was made by their own officers, consequently no State officers were engaged in any fraud. No State politicians were arrested, and no fraud, so far as we have heard, was committed in any Department. These being the facts, the extract above, though masked as an attack upon Gov. Curtin, is really aimed at the National Administration, who did furnish all the supplies it mentions, and is designed to affect the fall election in Pennsylvania. The Gazette publishes it without comment or denial. It is part and parcel of the conspiracy against the Government in which the Gazette and Inquirer men seem to have embarked themselves.

ARRIVED HOME.—Mr. Henry Edwards, of Co. F, 140th Pa. Vols., who was wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, arrived home last Friday evening, accompanied by his wife, who had started a few days previously to Philadelphia (where he lay in hospital) to administer to his wants while on his way thither. He was wounded in the left thigh by a Minie ball, which passed clear through it, inflicting a painful, but it is hoped not a dangerous, wound; and now that he is home, where all the attention and comfort that a wife and friends can bestow, a speedy recovery is anticipated.

WELL PUT.—The Louisville Journal says if anybody is dissatisfied with Federal money, let him go South and get Confederate money. If anybody is dissatisfied with United States taxes, let him go South and pay Southern taxes. If anybody is dissatisfied with the United States enrollment, let him go South and enjoy the benefits of the Southern conscription.

The Pittsburg Gazette on Gov. Curtin.

The Pittsburgh Gazette has but a limited circulation in this county, but there are doubtless some of our readers, into whose hands it occasionally passes. These must have noticed with surprise and indignation the envenomed attacks upon our Chief Magistrate, which for some weeks have been of daily occurrence in its columns. There are private reasons why the proprietors of this journal owe no love to Gov. Curtin, and we have not heretofore when, it allowed an occasional evidence of ill-will to appear in its columns, thought its course worthy of attention. But at this present juncture, when the life of the nation and the death of the rebellion depend upon the strength and unanimity of the Unionists of Pennsylvania, with which party the Gazette professes to sympathise, when the Convention which is to mould the action of that party is about to meet, and when the delegates to that Convention are already elected, and a large majority of them have publicly announced their preference for the present incumbent, its conduct must appear to every just man and lover of his country the extreme of criminality and folly. No newspaper within the confines of rebeldom, from Richmond to Mobile, has served the cause of treason and secession to better purpose during the last two weeks than has the Pittsburgh Gazette. At the very moment when, of all others, it is most important that harmony and wise counsels should prevail among the friends of the Government, it is exerting itself to the utmost of its ability to exasperate the friends of Governor Curtin and array against them those of the gentlemen seeking a nomination, and to produce a state of feeling and affairs which will render the Union nomination worthless, and make for George W. Woodward, traitor as he is, a smooth and safe path to the Gubernatorial chair.

We have not the space at present to recapitulate the various subjects of attack in this paper. They will be answered promptly and pointedly we imagine by the Convention of the 5th, and we will expose their falsehood and malignity when the copperhead organs, a few weeks hence attempt to use against the Union this ammunition with which the Gazette has so obligingly furnished them. Our desire is only at present to protest in the name of the Union men of this District against the unwise and unjust perversions of facts and history with which the Gazette is endeavoring to create a public sentiment against Governor Curtin, and to dragoon the State Convention into a nomination not in consonance with the views of the people it represents. Gov. Curtin has said he will not be a candidate. In spite of his declination, district after district has instructed its delegates to insist upon his candidacy.—Whether he will accept the nomination which the people demand shall be tendered him, we cannot say We can and do say, however, that he is the choice of the Union men of Beaver county, with a unanimity without precedent; that they have the fullest confidence in his ability, integrity and patriotism, and have publicly and authoritatively declared accordingly and that he can poll more votes amongst us than any candidate who can be placed before the State. His unpopularity in Western Pennsylvania, which is dwelt upon by the friends of the gentlemen seeking the Gubnatorial nomination is a fiction ridiculous to every one acquainted with public sentiment and the action of Western County Conventions. Every county along the Ohio line, from Virginia to the Lakes, (with a solitary exception, where no instructions were given) has declared in his favor and he can have, if he will take them, more votes in the Convention West of the Alleghenies than all the other candidates combined.

Administration Officials.

We do not charge to the personal account of the editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette the attacks upon the Union party of Pennsylvania through its highest official representative, which have of late appeared in that newspaper. No one who has heard Williams of Allegheny, on the floor of the House with wagging head and pert, oracular utterance, declaim against the Supreme Court, the Pennsylvania Railroad, and other objects of his abhorrence, can fail to recognize the author in every sentence of those articles. But the authorship is of no moment. Whether the editors of the Gazette are penning their own editorials or merely pimping it to Williams, they endorse and are responsible for them. One of these gentlemen is, we are informed, the Postmaster of Allegheny city, and another a paymaster in the army, both profitable offices, and the gift of the general administration.

Now our fall election is quite as important to the National Government as to the State. If Pennsylvania takes a stand beside New York against the Adminstration its days are numbered and the war for the Union is about ended. This is plain to the commonest comprehension. The people, therefore, whose treasure and best blood have been given so freely in response to the calls of the President, are anxious to know whether his patronage is to be allowed to remain in the possession of those who are playing directly into the hands of copperheads and traitors, and endeavoring to distract, divide and defeat the Union organization. In our opinion it is due to the party, the cause of the Union, and to the administration itself, that these men should be promptly removed from office, and allowed to seek the side of Woodward, in whose interest they are publicly operating.

We commend the subject to the attention of the loyal press of Western Pennsylvania and of the Convention, which meets to-day.

A Generous Church.

Rev. J. S. Bracken, pastor of the Bridgewater M. E. Church, was, as has been already noticed, among those drafted. The church, of which he is pastor, generously raised the whole amount required for exemption, (three hundred dollars,) paid it to the Collector last week and thus secured his exemption.

Considering the amount raised and the short space of time required to do it, it is an act of generosity seldom known. The church has done nobly, and desires and will receive great praise for their liberality. It is not only an act noble and generous, but an evidence of love, and good will for their pastor—a Christian sympathy that manifests the true spirit for both pastor and church. The members of the church have shown their love for their pastor, and he cannot but cherish the strongest feelings of attachment to his people. This being the case, his ministry will be both pleasant and profitable. Mr. Bracken is a young man of fine ability, an excellent preacher and perfect gentleman. He deserves and has the confidence of all who know him and many outside of the church will rejoice to learn of her action

THE Post Office at Beaver will be closed to-morrow (Thursday) from 9½ A. M. till 5½ P. M.

PROCLAMATION.

A Day of Thanksgiving and Prayer.

WASHINGTON, July 15.

By the President of the United States of America:

It has pleased almighty God to hearken to the supplications and prayers of an afflicted people, and to vouchsafe to the Army and Navy of the United States victories on land and on the sea, so signal and so effective as to furnish reasonable grounds for augmented confidence that the Union of these States will be sustained, their Constitution preserved, and their peace and prosperity permanently restored.

But these victories have been accorded not without sacrifices of life, limb, health and liberty, incurred by brave, loyal, and patriotic citizens. Domestic afflictions in every part of the country follow in the train of these fearful bereavements. It is meet and and right to recognize and confess the presence of the Almighty Father, and the power of his hand equally in these triumphs and these sorrows.

Now, therefore, be it known, That I do set apart THURSDAY, the 6th day of August next, to be observed as a national thanksgiving, praise and prayer; I invite the people of the United States to assemble on that occasion, in their customary places of worship, and in the forms approved by their own conscience, and render the homage due to the Divine majesty, for the wonderful things he has done in the nation's behalf, and invoke the influence of His holy spirit to subdue the anger which has produced and so long sustained a needless and cruel rebellion; to change the hearts of the insurgents; to guide the counsels of the Government with wisdom adequate to so great a national emergency, and to visit with tender care and consolation throughout the length and breadth of our land all those who, through the vicissitudes of marches, voyages, battles and seiges, have been brought to suffer in mind, body or estate, and finally to lead the whole nation, through the paths of repentance and submission to the Divine will back to the perfect enjoyment of Union and fraternal peace.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affiixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this, the 15th day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and sixty three, and of the independence of the United States of America the eighty-eighth.

[L. S.] ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

SOUTHERN KANSAS.—The state of affairs in Southern Kansas is anything else but delightful, as will be seen by the following extract of a letter received to-day by Commissioner Dole from the Indian Agent at Osho Agency, in that State:

"Murder, robbery, and arson are the order of the day here. Life and property have little security. The rebels are guarding their country like hell. On the 23d of last month they murdered and killed nineteen notorious rebels in their country, who, from papers in their pockets, were shown to be on their way to Colorado to raise troops for the Confederate army. The Osages cut off the heads of the murderers, and held a grand war dance over their dead bodies. They say they are fighting for Lincoln."

THE organ of Jeff. Davis at the State Capital has already had the satisfaction of originating a brutal attack on the colored people in the city, and is now engaged in fomenting another. The authorities should hold such individuals to a strict responsibility for the mischief they create by their insiduous or open teachings.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

The influence of "the organ" of Davis at the State Capital is important for good or evil—its efforts in either direction are regarded as worthy of notice by the authorities.

THE PRESIDENT'S SALARY.—President Lincoln has not drawn his salary for the past year from the Treasury. When reminded by friends of the same, and putting the same upon interest would receive an income of over twelve hundred dollars, he replied he thought the United States had the use of the money quite as much as any person, and he would let it remain.

THE FRENCH IN THE MEXICAN CAPITAL.—The French army, under Gen. Forey, in taking possession of the city of Mexico, appears to have been well received by the inhabitants of the Capital. The streets were strewn with flowers; Te Deum was chanted in the cathedral; and illuminations and fire-works testified the joy of the people on the arrival of their conquerors! The French official accounts speak of the "delirum of the people, who threw themselves before Forey and his staff." These accounts are decidedly Frenchy. One is reluctant to believe that a people can become so degraded and abject as the Mexicans are here represented to be, in rolling in the very dirt at the feet of their conquerors!

THE New York Tribune gives it as its deliberate conviction that sympathizers with the rebellion have for months plotted to bring about a revolution at the North, which should place the whole tier of free States bordering on the slave region in alliance with and practical subordination to the rebel conspiracy, and adds: Had Meade been defeated at Gettysburgh—as the Copperheads believed, they would have been ready to raise the flag of rebellion and proclaim M'Clellan the head of a Provisional Government.

MR. LONG has retired, at least for a "time," from the editorship of the Star. Who takes his place does not yet appear.

A JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing certain Amendments
TO THE CONSTITUTION

BE it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof:

There shall be an additional section to the third article of the Constitution, to be designated as section four, as follows:

Sec. 4. Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition from the President of the United States, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens, under such regulations as are, or shall be, prescribed by law, as fully as if they were present at their usual place of election.

There shall be two additional sections to the eleventh article of the Constitution, to be designated as sections eight and nine, as follows:

Sec. 8. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature, containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills.

Sec. 9. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature granting any powers, or privileges, in any case, where the authority to grant such powers or privileges, has been, or may hereafter be, conferred upon the courts of this Commonwealth. JOHN CESSNA,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN P. PENNEY,
Speaker of the Senate.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.
DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, painful menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, whites, all nervous affections, fatigue, hysterics, pain in the back and limbs, etc., disturbed sleep, which arise from interruption of nature.

Dr Cheeseman's Pills

was the commencement of a new era in the treatment of those irregularities and obstructions which have consigned so many to a PREMATURE GRAVE. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular, and whenever an obstruction takes place the general health begins to decline.

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills

are the most effectual remedy known for all complaints peculiar to Females. To all classes they are invaluable, inducing, with certainty, periodical regularity. They are known to thousands, who have used them at different periods, throughout the country, having the sanction of some of the most eminent Physicians in America.

Explicit directions, stating when they should not be used, with each Box—the Price One Dollar per Box, containing from 50 to 60 Pills.

Pills sent by mail, promptly, by remitting to the Proprietor. Dr. Smith of Bridgewater sole agent for this County.
R. B. HUTCHINGS, Proprietor.

THE SOLDIER'S TRUE FRIEND!
ALWAYS READY.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

LONG marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the soldier must endure, MOTHERS, REMEMBER THIS, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a pot of this ALL HEALING & COOLING Salves will give to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for at stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightly wounds.
WIVES AND SISTERS OF OUR VOLUNTEERS
You cannot put into the Knapsacks of your Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this EXTRAORDINARY MILITARY SALVE.
The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night exposed to drenching rains and chill night air, is often seized the most VIOLENT PAINS, COUGHS and SUFFOCATING HOARSENESS, first symptoms of QUICK CONSUMPTION, but if supplied with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the SEVEREST PAINS and stop the most distressing or DANGEROUS COUGH
Thefore we say to the whole army,
SOLDIERS ATTENTION!!
See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES, many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the Soldier in Camp DIARRHEA; DYSENTERY, SCURVY, SORES and SCROFULOUS, ERUPTIONS, all disappear like a charm before these PILLS AND OINTMENT, and now while the Cry rings throughout the land,
TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!
Do not let these brave men perish by disease place in their hands these PRECIOUS REMEDIES, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succor in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot, or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.
 Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.
☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.
N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

The Neuralgia and Rheumatic Plaster (large size,) for Pains in the Chest, Shoulders, Back, or any part of the body, sent post paid, on receipt of Thirty-seven cents.

Address,
WM. B. HURD, CO.
Tribune Buildings, New York.

Dr. Hurd's MOUTH WASH, TOOTH POWDER and TOOTHACHE DROPS cannot be sent by mail, but they can probably be obtained at your Drug or Periodical Stores. If they cannot, send to us for the DENTAL TREASURY; Price, ONE DOLLAR, which contains them.

NOW,

ARE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS GOOD
The best evidences that they are is, that their firmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. Wm. B. Hurd is an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and no leading citizen of Brooklyn or Williamsburg questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.
The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Times says: "We are happy to know that our friend, Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectations with his MOUTH WASH and TOOTH POWDER. The great secret of his success rests with the fact that his articles are precisely what they are represented to be, as we can testify from their long use."
The well known P. T. Barnum writes: "I found your TOOTH POWDER so good that my family have used it all up. We find it the best powder for the teeth we have ever used. I shall feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, with bill."
But their cost is so small that every one may test the matter for himself.
☞ Beware of the ordinary Tooth Powders. Dr. Hurd's Tooth Powder contains no acids, nor alkali, nor charcoal, and polishes without wearing the enamel. Use no other.
WHAT WILL DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?
Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that finest charm in woman—a sweet breath and pearly teeth. Try them, ladies.
Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from all foul exhalations, and if used in the morning, will make the breakfast taste sweeter and the day begin more pleasantly. Hundreds of persons can testify to this. Try them, gentlemen.
Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the the best preparations in the world for curing bad breath and giving firmness and health to the gums. Hundreds of cases of Diseased Bleeding Gums, Sore Mouth, Canker, etc., have been cured by Dr. Hurd's astringent wash.
Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder give an additional charm to courtship, and make husbands more agreeable to their wives and wives to their husbands. They should be used by every person having
which are liable to impart a taint to the mouth
Dr. Hurd's Toothache Drops cure Toothache arising from exposed nerves, and are the best friends that parents can have in the house to save their children from torture and themselves from loss of sleep and sympathetic suffering.
Farmers and mechanics! you cannot well afford to neglect your teeth. For a trifling sum you can now get preservatives, than which Rothschild or Astor can get nothing better. Remember that Dyspepsia and Consumption of the Lungs often originate in neglect of Teeth. Send for the Treatise on Teeth, and read Dr. Fitch's observations on this subject. If too late to arrest decay in your own teeth, save your children's teeth.
NEURALGIA PLASTERS.—Dr. Hurd's Neuralgia Non-Adhesive Plasters are the most pleasant and successful remedies ever prescribed for this painful disease. The patient applies one, soon becomes drowsy, falls asleep, and awakes free from pain, and no blister or other unpleasant or injurious consequences ensue. For Earache and Nervous Headache, apply according to directions, and relief will surely follow. Nothing can be obtained equal to Dr. Hurd's Compress for Neuralgia. Try them. They are entirely a novel, curious and original preparation, and wonderfully successful. They are of two sizes, one small, for the face, price 15 cents, and the other large, for application to the body, price 37 cents. Will be mailed on receipt of price and one stamp.

WHAT ARE THE PEOPLE DOING?
The American people are intelligent enough to appreciate preparations that contribute so much to happiness of those using them, and they won't them. Every mail brings us letters, some ordering the Treatise on Teeth, some the Neuralgia Plasters, and not a few enclosing 37 cts. for the Mouth Wash, to be sent by mail: but to these we are compelled to reply that it is impossible to send a half-pint bottle by mail. The people want these Remedies. Who will supply them?
Now is the CHANCE FOR AGENTS.
Shrewd agents can make a small fortune in carrying these articles around to families. The Dental Treasury is the neatest article that a man or woman can carry around. Send for one and see, or better, a dozen, which we will sell, as samples, for $7. Agents supplied liberally with circulars. ☞ Now is the time to to go into the business, to do good, and make a profit. We are spending thousands for the benefit of agents. New England men or women! here is something nice, and a chance to take the tide at its flood. Address,
WM. B. HURD & CO.,
Tribune Buildings, New York.
That remittances may be made with confidence, W. B. H. & Co., refer to the Mayor of Brooklyn; to G. W. Griffith, President Farmers and Citizens Bank, Brooklyn; to Jay, Cooke, & Co., New York; to P. T. Barnum, Esq., New York, etc., etc.

MARRIAGE.

ITS loves and hates, sorrows and angers, hopes and fears, regrets and joys; MANHOOD, how lost; how restored; the nature, treatment and radical cure of spermatorrhœa or seminal weakness; involuntary emissions; sexual debility and impediments to marriage generally; nervousness, consumption, fits, mental and physical incapacity, resulting from SELF-ABUSE—are fully explained in the MARRIAGE GUIDE, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every man or woman who desires to limit the number of their offspring to their circumstances. Every pain, disease and ache incidental to youth, maturity and old age, is fully explained; every particle of knowledge that should be known is here given. It is full of engravings. In fact, it discloses secrets that every one should know; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in specie or postage stamps.

Office of JAY COCKE,

SUBSCRIPTION AGENT,
At JAY COCKE & O., Bankers,
140 SOUTH THIRD STREET,
Philadelphia, Nov. 1, 1862.

THE undersigned, having been appointed SUBSCRIPTION AGENT by the Secretary of the Treasury, is now prepared to furnish, at once, the

New Twenty Year 6 per ct. Bonds, of the United States, designated as "Five-Twenties," redeemable at the pleasure of the Government, after five years, and authorized by Act of Congress, approved February 25, 1862.

The COUPON BONDS are issued in sums of $50, $100, $500, $1000.

The REGISTER BONDS in sums of $50 $100, $500, $1000 and $5000.

Interest at Six per cent. per annum will commence from date of purchase, and is

PAYABLE IN GOLD,

Semi-Annually, which is equal, at the present premium on gold, to about EIGHT PER CENT. PER ANNUM.

Farmers, Merchants, Mechanics, Capitalists, and all who have any money to invest, should know and remember that these Bonds are, in effect, a FIRST MORTGAGE upon all Railroads, Canals, Bank Stocks and Securities, and the immense products of all the Manufactures, &c., &c., in the country: and the full and ample provision made for the payment of the interest and liquidation of principal, by Customs Duties, Excise Stamps and Internal Revenue, serves to make these Bonds the Best, Most Available and Most Popular Investment in the Market.

Subscriptions received at PAR in Legal Tender Notes, or notes and checks of banks at par in Philadelphia. Subscribers by mail will receive prompt attention, and every facility and explanation will be afforded on application at this office.

A full supply of Bonds will be kept on hand for immediate delivery.
JAY COOKE, Subscription Agent.

Notice.

ALL persons having unsettled account with me, or Smith & Collins, within the last twenty years, for Carding, Spinning, &c., will please call at the Fallston Woolen Factory, before the first of October, 1862, and settle the same by cash or note.

CRITTENDEN'S PHILADELPHIA COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,

N. E. corner of 7th & Chestnut St.,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS Institution, which was established in 1834, and is now consequently in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates, hundreds of the most successful Merchants and Business Men of our Country.

The object of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparation for business.

The branches taught are, Book-keeping, as applicable to the various departments of trade; Penmanship, both plain and ornamental; Commercial Law, mathematics, Navigation, Civil Engineering, Drawing, Phonography, and Modern Languages.

The system of Instruction is peculiar; no classes or set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

Catalogues are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

In extensive accommodations, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this Institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain at the same time A DIPLOMA, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

☞ CRITTENDEN'S Series of Treatises on Book-Keeping, now more widely circulated than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.

TO PHYSICIANS & DRUGGISTS.

THE undersigned would inform Physicians and Druggists that, owing to an increasing demand, he is now prepared to manufacture on a larger scale than heretofore all articles of the Pharmacopœia. These will be of the strength and quality as dispensed in the Prescription Department of my store, and will be found superior in strength to most in market. I guarantee them to be of the proper strength and purity.

Some preparations offered are new, but will be made official in the new Pharmacopœia soon to be issued, and will be found to be valuable remedies.

Any information as regards their strength, uses and qualities will be sent to those desiring it.

I would advise Physicians who have been disappointed in the effect of any remedy, to try those of my manufacture.

They include—
Compound Extract of Colocynth,
Fluid Extracts of Dandelion, Buchu, Ergot, Gentian, Lupulin Valerian, Wild Cherry Bark, and others,
Citrate of Irod and Citrate of Iron and Quinine; very soluble,
Wine of Iron and Wine of Iron and Bark, agreeable chalybeates,
Syrup of the Hypophosphites,
Cerate of the Extract of Cantharides; a more reliable preparation than the common Cerate,
Oxalate of Cerium; useful in obstinate vomiting,
Elixir of Valerianate of Ammonia; a valuable remedy for nervous or sick headache, where a nervous stimulant and antacid is indicated,
Solution of Bi-meconate of Morphia: same strength as Laudanum and more agreeable in its effects,
Pyro-phosphate of Iron: soluble.
These, together with all rare and fine chemicals and other medicinal articles, furnished in any quantities.

I am prepared to make chemical examinations of Ores, Drugs, Oils, Waters, &c.

The Eye.

DR. J. R. SPEER, 196 Penn st., Pittsburg, continues to devote special attention, as he has done for the last twenty-five years, to the diseases, deformities and defects of this important organ.

In reply to frequent inquiries of correspondents, it may be stated that, amongst the CURABLE diseases of the eye are Cataract, where the pupil is of a milky color, instead of black, as in the healthy eye; Opthalmia, Pterygium, Opacities and Films from recent inflammation, Nervous Sensibility of the Optic Nerves, Strabismus, or Crooked Eyes, Inversion of the Eye-lids, Fistula, Lachrymalis.

Amongst the incurable are Amaurosis, or complete paralysis of the optic nerve, where no light is visible; Opacities and Films from chronic inflammation; all cases in which the ball of the eye is lessened or altered in form by disease of injuries.

Defects of Vision, as along or short sightedness, may generally be relieved or cured by properly adjusted glasses.

A Family and an Agricultural Journal, DEVOTED TO CHOICE LITERATURE, INCLUDING
Poetry, Novelettes, Tales,
AND MORAL AND ENTERTAINING READING GENERALLY.

In the Literary Department we shall present the choicest varieties within the reach of our extended means. The Novelettes, Tales, Poetry, &c., shall be supplied from the best and highest sources, and be equal to anything to be found in any journal or magazine.

Agriculture and Horticulture,

EMBRACING
Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c.

In all their branches, as conducted on the latest and most approved system.

Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empires and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care, and discrimination, in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public. The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible to present, the condensed and carefully made-up form in which it appears, a corrected mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

We annex the cash terms, to which we beg leave to call attention of all who think of subscribing for a newspaper:

Advance Cash Terms.

One copy, one year, $2; one copy, three years, $5.00; three copies, one year, $5.00; Five Copies, One Year, $8.00; Ten Copies, One Year, $15.00; Twenty Copies, One Year, $28.00.

☞ Subscription not paid within the year, $2.50.

☞ A Club of five subscribers, at $8, will entitle the person getting it up to a copy for six months; a Club of, ten or more, to a copy for one year. All Club subscriptions stopped at the end of the time paid for, unless re-ordered.

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT.

AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER.

And Other Nervous and Chronic Diseases.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care, and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement; or other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body, will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land, which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths but, also, the medicated, warm air, and ascending and descending douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured that no means will be spared or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

For further particulars send for a circular. All communications should be addressed to.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES OF THE BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS And Ointment.

ALL WHO have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care that they be amply supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS
Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.
These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly a produce a healthy action in both liver and, stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE,
Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.
Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS, EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, OR SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES.
To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and ointment. The poor Wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack, and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflamation.

Every Soldier's knapsack and Seaman's chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

MARRIAGE.

ITS loves and hates, sorrows and angers, hopes and fears, regrets and joys; MANHOOD, how lost, how restored; the nature, treatment and radical cure of spermatorrhœa or seminal weakness; involuntary emissions, sexual debility and impediments to marriage generally; nervousness, consumption, fits, mental and physical incapacity, resulting from SELF-ABUSE—are fully explained in the MARRIAGE GUIDE, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every man or woman who desires to limit the number of their offspring to their circumstances. Every pain, disease and ache incidental to youth, maturity and old age, is fully explained; every particle of knowledge that should be known is here given. It is full of engravings. In fact, it discloses secrets that every one should know; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in specie or postage stamps.

Address Dr. WM. YOUNG, 416 Spruce st., above Fourth, Philadelphia.

USE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS GOOD

The best evidences that they are is, that their firmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. Wm. B. Hurd is an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and no leading citizen of Brooklyn or Williamsburg questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.

The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Times says: "We are happy to know that our friend, Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectations with his MOUTH WASH and TOOTH POWDER. The great secret of his success rests with the fact that, his articles are precisely what they are represented to be, as we can testify from their long use."

The well known P. T. Barnum writes: "I found your TOOTH POWDER so good that my family have used it all up. We find it the best powder for the teeth we have ever used. I shall feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, with bill."

But their cost is so small that every one may test the matter for himself.

☞ Beware of the ordinary Tooth Powders. Dr. Hurd's Tooth Powder contains no acids, nor alkali, nor charcoal, and polishes without wearing the enamel. Use no other.

WHAT WILL DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that finest charm in woman—a sweet breath and pearly teeth. Try them, ladies.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from all foul exhalations, and if used in the morning, will make the breakfast taste sweeter and the day begin more pleasantly. Hundreds of persons can testify to this. Try them, gentlemen.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the the best preparations in the world for curing bad breath and giving firmness and health to the gums. Hundreds of cases of Diseased Bleeding Gums, Sore Mouth, Canker, etc., have been cured by Dr. Hurd's astringent wash.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder give an additional charm to courtship, and make husbands
